Guest Speaker - Karen McNenny

SUPERHERO SEEKS SANITY

The soul of America is sitting in the workplace; it is where we spend most of our waking hours. However, as scarcity thinking continues to squeeze the world of economics and employment, you must find strength in unsuspecting places. But how do you deal with the difficult days, and difficult people, when you don't actually have any super powers? This humorous and poignant presentation brings to life the struggles of so many people working in the workforce system. Learn how to balance the passion and commitment you bring to your work, while protecting your sanity and health. Karen will share her top superhero strategies - no cape required.

Not only will Karen educate and entertain, she will also enlighten and inspire.

KAREN McNENNY

Karen is the founder and president of Made You Think Consulting. She works throughout the country as a professional speaker, group facilitator and personal coach. Before starting her own business, she worked as a master trainer & facilitator for Providence Health and Services, the largest healthcare system in the Northwest. Karen's areas of expertise include employee engagement, leadership development, and transforming workplace culture. Her recent clients have included Spokane International Airport, Department of Health and Human Services, Ravalli County Economic Development Authority, and the YMCA of greater Los Angeles.

Karen has a B.A. in Media and Theater Arts from Montana State University. As a Rotary International Scholar, she did her graduate work in the field of Integrative Art Therapy & Group Facilitation at the Sesame Institute in London, England. Karen has had a diverse career path, stretching from her days performing as an actress and dancer, to hocking souvenirs at the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally. Karen currently lives in Missoula, where she also holds the glamorous position of Domestic Diva, serving her two young children.
